

PUBLIC NOTICE
OCCUPATIONAL SKILLS TRAINING PROVIDERS

The Central Texas Workforce Board (CTWB), doing business as Workforce Solutions of Central Texas, acting as administrative entity for local activities conducted under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) and in accordance with Texas Workforce Commission Rule at 40 TAC 841.47(a), issues an invitation to providers of occupational skills training to apply to CTWB for eligibility determination of their training programs for WIOA sponsorship.

The Central Texas Workforce area includes the counties of Bell, Coryell, Hamilton, Lampasas, Milam, Mills, and San Saba. Training providers may be located outside this geographical area. CTWB encourages historically underutilized businesses and service providers to respond to this and all invitations.

“Eligible training providers” are identified by US Department of Labor in its Training and Employment Guidance Letter (TEGL) 41-14, issued June 26, 2015. Information on the Texas statewide Eligible Training Provider System may also be obtained by Internet at <http://www.twc.state.tx.us/boards/wia/tpcs/etpc.html>. CTWB reserves the right to accept or reject provider applications based on current board, State, and federal rules.

CTWB participates in the statewide Eligible Training Provider System established and operated by Texas Workforce Commission, with local policies approved by CTWB. Questions concerning the local application process, area demand and targeted occupations, and what constitutes an eligible training provider may be addressed to Horace Dicks by phone at 254.742.4512, by FAX at 254.939.3207, or by email at horaced@workforcelink.com; or may be addressed to Roy Highsmith by phone at 254.200.2237, by FAX at 844.273.8573, or by email at royh@workforcelink.com.
